Prof. Pratiba had welcomed Prof. Sudham Mohan, Prof. Shubhasaj and Adv. Amanda in the Board of Studies. Prof. Shezia had read the report from the last year's meeting. Prof. Pratiba had explained to the BOS members that in some of the papers, two units are to be merged due to the limited no. of lectures and time constraints. However, instead of removing one unit <sup>in every course</sup>, we are proposing to club two units, as some of the topics are very important and fundamental for the subjects. In paper 3.01, Unit 2. Legislature and Unit 3. Executive and in Paper 3.02, Unit 3 Public Administration

|                    | In the age of Globalisation and unit 4. New Public Management are to be merged. This proposal was approved by the members. Prof. Sneha had suggested the new unit in paper 3.02 is to be renamed as New Public Management. In paper 4.02, 2 units are combined and title of the chapter is to be renamed as Trends and challenges in Indian Politics. Moreover, there was also suggestion to change the title of the topic 1.2. major political development to dynamics of electoral politics. In 6.03, Prof. Pratiba had proposed to introduce research methodology in unit no. 1 and dissertation instead of end semester exam due to the reason that students should get exposure of research. Principal also support this and Prof. Pratiba conveyed to the members that Principal has suggested to preserve dissertation for 5 years. In 6.06, Prof. Shazia had proposed two major changes. Firstly, Unit 4 - Civil society and initiatives would be merged with unit no. 1 - Human Rights. Secondly, Another proposal was to introduce Book review in CIA instead of written assignment and viva. Prof. Pratiba welcome Prof. Beena in the Board of Studies and thanked her for joining BOS of Dept. of Political Science. In the beginning, Prof. Pratiba discussed the last year minutes. Prof. Beena expressed her concern over the syllabus change. She said the Dept. has made overambitious syllabus because syllabus is very vast and more teaching days would be required in order to finish syllabus. Therefore, in her words, one of the aims would be to finish the portion. We should be realistic while framing the syllabus. Even Prof. Beena advised to cut down the syllabus.

In 3.01, Introduction to the Indian constitution, electoral process was added. Right to Information was shifted from Semester IV to

In 4-01, Vidarbha was removed from the Chapter of Sub-regional demands for the very fact that Vidarbha is covered in the Political Process in Maharashtra (5-01). Bodoland remain in paper. In 4-02, Lokpal and Lok Ayukt are added in chapter two. In 5-02, Political thinker Rousseau is removed, as the syllabus of this paper is too vast. Whereas Mill would be discussed in the First year 2-01. Though it's not explicitly mentioned in the syllabus but it would be covered in the chapter of Liberty. In 5-03, Minerva Mills case has been removed added to unit 1. In 5-05, OPEC and IAEA have been included in Unit 3 Regional Organizations and the Chapter is renamed as Role of regional organization. In 5-06, the entire chapters have been organized. Chapter 1 and 2 have been merged. WTO is added into new Chapter 2. After explaining these significant changes in the syllabus, other members also expressed their opinions. Prof. John Dale from Mumbai University appreciates this. Moreover, he also explained advised certain technicalities involved in the making of syllabus. He also made few suggestions on the basis of his experience in Mumbai University. |                 |

Prof. Asha and Mr. Bala asked the reason of including Agarkar. Prof. Pratibha responded that there are two reasons behind this. There is lot of commonality between Tilak and Agarkar. They shared common perspective on Patriotism and nationalism. Mr. Bala said that why not include Anand Mohan Ghosh and Subhas Chandra Bose etc, possibly from the east or the south instead of both the thinkers from Maharashtra as this will give cross perspective. But he also agreed that there are were many social reformers than political thinkers in the different regions. In 6th Sem <sup>Paper 3</sup> Unit 2, Biodiversity and Conservation added. |            | also contemporary and very relevant. This problem is very severe in countries like Turkey, Syria and Germany etc. Aasha Ma'am appreciated this and commented that this is very interesting, contemporary and relevant. Mr. Bala commented that this is interesting mix of academics and contemporary events. We thanked everyone for their presence and we got a lot of appreciation for well done curriculum. |   |
