To

Whosoever it may concern,

Amee Parikh was a part of our Sutradhar India, a socio-cultural enterprise and Createdu India Foundation, a not-for-profit company as an Intern for Content Writing and Social Media Management from December 2019 to May 2020. During her tenure of working with our team, she worked on content design, campaign ideation, content writing and social media marketing, Amee has an excellent knack of putting messages in words to convey social messages and has the curiosity to find out more, work towards it and stand up to her thoughts. Her work on the campaign design of one of our social media campaigns, 'Reel to Real' for mental health awareness was noteworthy.

We wish her all the best for all future endeavours.

Thank you,
