TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

This is to certify that Ms. Anjali Khandelwal has worked as Intern with the Indian Council for Research on International Economic Relations (ICRIER) under over all supervision of Dr. Arpita Mukherjee, Professor, ICRIER from October 15, 2019 to November 15, 2019.

During the period she has worked for a research study on “Enhancing Trade and Co-operation between Yunnan in China and West Bengal in India”. She did literature review and secondary data analysis. This will be an input for the Department of Economic Affairs G20 deliberations under the DFiD (UK) funded project “UK-India Economic Policy and Prosperity Partnership (EPPP)”.

She has displayed diligence and sincerity in her work and has been a good learner. Her overall performance was very good throughout her internship period.

We thank her for her contribution and wish success in her future endeavours.
