To Whomsoever It May Concern

The purpose of this letter is to certify that Sakshi Shivpuri interned with Pratham Education Foundation in Mumbai, India from 1st April 2019 to 30th April 2019. Pratham Education Foundation is one of the largest and most respected NGOs in India, with a goal of expanding quality education to underprivileged children and youth through literacy, evaluation, and vocational training programs.

Sakshi was a part of the research lab, where she worked on the issue of distress migration in parts of Maharashtra. She co-authored an article on the same. She is a bright individual, a quick learner and adept at research and writing skills. She has excellent communication skills and has displayed a willingness to learn. She is flexible and is willing to work on any project assigned to her. Over the course of the internship, she was able to develop good working relationships with her fellow interns and supervisors.

I would highly recommend Sakshi Shivpuri for any opportunity to which she applies in the future, and wish her good luck.

Thank you

Regards,

Mr. Rajesh Thokale
