Dear Zainab,

Just a short note to thank you for your invaluable support and help. It was a pleasure having you with us from 18th April to 7th June, 2019. Rachna Chawla has advised me that you worked with us on various assignments such as research assistance and data collection, as well as other functions related to the center's main activities.

Your commitment and hard work was appreciated and I am sure that you will be an asset to the organizations you choose to join, in the future. All the very best!

Warm Regards,

Anjali Raina
